

Summer Reading List AP Spanish 4

Students should choose two of the four following literary works to read:

Any articles they select should be in SPANISH (most already are on those sites). They should pay attention to and keep note of major recurring themes throughout the works and will do an integrative project with these works upon their return, so they should keep the books & articles handy for class use.

Edición de Francisco Rico. Lazarillo de Tormes.

Madrid, Spain: Ediciones Cátedra, S.A., 1998

Denevi, Marco. Rosaura a las diez.

Englewood Cliffs, NJ: Prentice Hall, 1964.

Jiménez, Juan Ramón. Platero y yo.

New York, NY: Clarion Books, 1957.

Ryan, Pam Muñoz. Esperanza renace.

New York, NY: Scholastic Inc., 2000.

They should also read two articles of their choice from two of the following current events websites:

BBC

<http://news.bbc.co.uk/hi/spanish/news/>

CNN en español

www.cnn.com/espanol/

Nuevos horizontes

www.nuevoshorizontes.org/

El mundo

www.elmundo.es/

La nación

www.nacion.com/

Radio naciones unidas

www.un.org/radio/es/

Puerta del sol

www.puerta-del-sol.com

Think Spanish

www.thinkspanish.com

Univision

www.univision.com